

The Minnesota Technology Education Association

An International Technology Education Association Affiliate

An Organization That:

- Sponsors a Fall Conference – the single best place to find out what’s going on in teaching technology with presentations, demonstrations and commercial vendors.
- Is instrumental in advocating for inclusion of technology as a Minnesota graduation outcome.
- Works cooperatively with the Minnesota Department of Education to develop teachers licensure, program standards and other matters of mutual concern.
- Publishes a top-flight journal packed with articles, resources and all the latest news in Minnesota education.
- Networks with organizations like SciMath Minnesota, the Minnesota Association for Career and Technical Education, the Minnesota High Technology Council and the Minnesota Tooling and Machining Association to promote teaching about technology.
- Was instrumental in passing legislation to have state universities review their entrance requirements regarding technology.
- Hosted the 1992 ITEA International Conference.
- Sponsors competitions and workshops for technology teachers and students.
- Recognizes teachers for their accomplishments with awards for outstanding teachers, programs, 25-year awards and retiree awards.
- Provides up to date information through our home page at www.mtea.net.

The Minnesota Technology Education Association focuses on what is of value to students and supportive of teachers in the field; is dedicated to local and national technology organizations; and makes a difference in the quality of education in our state.
