“Apocalypse now”

Multimedia Division

Problem: Produce a one minute long animation that tells some sort of story that is related to an apocalypse of some sort (end of the world).

Specifications:

- The story must have at least one character.
- Must be at least 60 seconds in length
- Must not be longer than 5min in length
- The entire animation should be judged on: storytelling, cinematography, and overall quality.

The final presentation should be a fully rendered scene with an accompanied “making-of” speech or power-point with relevant material.
